

In the book of Thy king-dom,

The first line of music consists of two staves. The treble staff begins with a treble clef and a key signature of three flats (G minor). The melody starts on a dotted quarter note, followed by an eighth note, then a half note, and ends with a whole note. The bass staff begins with a bass clef and the same key signature. The bass line starts on a dotted quarter note, followed by an eighth note, then a half note, and ends with a whole note. The lyrics "In the book of Thy king-dom," are centered between the two staves.

Is my name writ - ten there?

The second line of music also consists of two staves. The treble staff continues the melody from the first line, ending with a double bar line. The bass staff continues the bass line from the first line, also ending with a double bar line. The lyrics "Is my name writ - ten there?" are centered between the two staves.
