1. All will be well when the morn-ing dawns, All will be well,
2. God will pro-vide ev - 'ry need for me, All will be well,
3. Christ will be near when I'm cross-ing o'er, All will be well, all will be well; Weep-ing and heart-aches will all be gone, all will be well; Why should I fear tho' I can not see?

all will be well; Loved ones will shout on the heav'n-ly shore, and

Chorus
All will be well up there. All will be well, all will be well,

All will be well in the bye and bye, Naught will I fear as I cross the val - ley, All will be well up there.
