

Chorus

The first line of the chorus is written on a grand staff. The treble clef staff contains a melody of eighth and quarter notes, with a slur over the first four notes. The bass clef staff provides a harmonic accompaniment with eighth and quarter notes. The lyrics "All will be well, all will be well," are centered between the staves.

All will be well, all will be well,

The second line of the chorus continues the melody and accompaniment from the first line. The treble clef staff features a series of eighth notes, and the bass clef staff continues with a steady accompaniment. The lyrics "All will be well in the bye and bye," are centered between the staves.

All will be well in the bye and bye,
