

His Way Is Best

Show me thy ways, O Jehovah; Teach me thy paths. - Ps. 25:4

F - 2 - SOL

Gertrude W. Seibert

M. L. McPhail, 1907

1. How sweet to feel God's will is best, And in this pre - cious
2. Oh how it helps us bear the pain, Oh, how it makes us
3. To those who take His will as best, He grants His per - fect
4. Then why should hearts grow weak or faint, Why should we ev - er tho't to rest; To know, what - ev - er may be - tide, 'Tis strong a - gain! The cold and gloom of dark - est night it peace and rest, And ev - er gives them day by day His make com - plaint. Let us press on with up - turned face, And

D.S. - I know, what - ev - er may be - tide, He'll best, for He is by our side!

fills with warmth and heav'n - ly light! His way is best,
grace suf - fi - cient on the way.
fol - low where we can - not trace!

Fine Chorus

nev - er—nev - er leave my side.

His way is best— And in this pre - cious tho't I'll rest;

D.S.