

In The Master's Name

*We must work the works of him that sent me, while it is day:
the night cometh, when no man can work. - Jn. 9:4*

C - 4 - MI

E. A. Barnes

Wm. J. Kirkpatrick, 1892

1. Are we sow - ing, with a rea - dy hand, Gos - pel
2. Are we seek - ing to re - claim the lost, By his
3. Are we speak - ing for the good of all, Gos - pel
4. Are we liv - ing in his serv - ice here, Serv - ing words that hold the prec - ious seed? Are we help - ing with a lov - ing call so ten - der and so sweet? Are we pray - ing that the world at words of his re - deem - ing love? Are we bear - ing to the heart of well, our love and zeal to show? Are we giv - ing with a will - ing heart, Where are seen so man - y in their need?

large May be brought to wor - ship at his feet?
grief Prec - ious balm of com - fort from a - bove?
heart, To ad - vance his king - dom here be - low?

Chorus

Are we do - ing this? Are we do - ing this? Work - ing while we may? In the Mast - er's name, For the Mast - er's sake, La - bor while 'tis day.