

Sweetly Saved

For we are a sweet savor of Christ unto God, in them that are saved, and in them that perish; - 2 Cor. 2:15

E - 4 - SOL

B. T. Yohe, (arr.)

R. C. Ward

1. There is noth-ing in this life That is worth the toil and strife,
2. If we gain the wealth of gold, And much hon - or, fame un - told,
3. Earth-ly joys are for a day, Earth-ly rich - es pass a - way;

But to know that we are saved, sweet-ly saved; There is But have failed to lay our treas - ures a - bove; He will
But the peace that fills my soul, is to know; That the noth - ing that gives peace, Caus - ing pain and strife to cease, say, "I know ye not, There is noth - ing good you've wrought, love of God is sure, And for ev - er will en - dure,

D.S. - have His blood ap - plied, Glo - ry to the Cru - ci - fied!

Fine Chorus
But to walk with - in the way he has paved.
But re - rused my of - fered mer - cy and love." Oh, I
If I'm faith - ful I to Je - sus will go.
I shall live and reign with Him o - ver there.

know I'm sweet-ly saved, For His life He free-ly gave, Then the D.S.

life of bliss im - mor-tal I shall share; And I
I shall share,