

The Cleansing Fountain

A fountain opened for sin and for uncleanness. - Zech. 13:1

A \flat - 2 - SOL

Rian A. Dykes

Ira D. Sankey, 1887

1. Be - hold a Foun - tain deep and wide, Be - hold its
 2. From Cal - vary's cross, where Je - sus died In sor - row,
 3. O may we all the heal - ing pow - er Of that bless'd
 4. And when at last the mes - sage comes, And we are on - ward flow; 'Twas o - pened in the Sav - iour's side, And pain and woe, Burst forth the won - drous crim - son tide That Foun - tain know; Trust on - ly in the pre - cious blood That called to go, Our trust shall still be in the blood That cleans - eth "white as snow, And cleans - eth white as snow."

 cleans - eth "white as snow, That cleans - eth white as snow."
 cleans - eth "white as snow, That cleans - eth white as snow."
 cleans - eth "white as snow, That cleans - eth white as snow."

Chorus

Come to this Foun - tain, 'Tis flow - ing to - day; And all who will may free - ly come And wash their sins a - way.