

There is Always Time for Prayer

Pray without ceasing. - 1 Thess. 5:17

C - 2 - DO
Edith H. Kinney

Geo. O. Webster, 1904
Arr. P. P. Bilhorn

Prayerfully

1. Should the new dawn, break - ing, a bur - den bring, That your
2. With a lift of heart let the day be - gin, And a 3. When your wea - ry feet fal - ter on the path, Tho' to 4. When the late light dies with the set - ting sun, Would you soul deems hard to bear, Seek a boon of grace for a mo - ment re - spite spare, Ere you press a - long with the pause you do not dare. Would you find the stress of the taste a balm for care? With a lift of heart let the

Rit. - - - - -

lit - tle space, There is al - ways time for pray'r.
toil - ing throug; There is al - ways time for pray'r.
noon glow less? There is al - ways time for pray'r.
day de - part; There is al - ways time for pray'r.

Chorus

There is al - ways time in the morn - ing's prime, And the gold - en noon - tide fair; There is al - ways time 'neath the

Rit. - - - - - e - ven - chime, There is al - ways time for pray'r.