

'Tis Midnight; And On Olive's Brow

*And He came out...to the mount of Olives...and being in agony
He prayed more earnestly... - Lk. 22:39-46*

A \flat - 4 - SOL

William B. Tappan, 1822

William B. Bradbury, 1853

1. 'Tis mid - night; and on Ol - ive's brow
2. 'Tis mid - night; and for oth - er's' guilt
3. 'Tis mid - night; and from heav'n - ly plains

The star is dimmed that late - ly shone;
The Man of Sor - rows weeps in blood;
Is borne the song that an - gels know;

'Tis mid - night; in the gar - den, now
Yet He that hath in an - guish knelt
Un - heard by mor - tals are the strains

The suf - f'ring Sav - ior prays a - lone.
Is not for - sak - en by His God.
That sweet - ly soothe the Sav - ior's woe.